Councilman Mitch O'Farrell and El Centro in beautiful downtown Echo Park are squabbling over a plot of land that was public parking, then a playground, and now they want to create a homeless shelter.

I was at the Goodwill at <3150 N San Fernando Rd Los Angeles, CA 90065>, and I saw a huge building in the distance across the street from the parking lot. They told me it was the old jail. This is a huge piece of land being unused. I can't find it on the map but I'm sure somebody knows about it.

attached is a picture

Please reply.

Or - I have a "moderate proposal" - knock El Centro down and put back the parking places!

- there are huge forum threads about parking in Echo Park.

No parking = no spending money on local businesses = no funding for City Council.
